12. Until the auction in March 2021, who did you think owned the Land? Please give any details.

I thought the land was publicly owned for the collective good. Many modern estates are infamous because of their lack of facilities. To destroy a sports field that has existed for many years is both abhorant and immoral. Consider the current epidemic of obesity, which often begins in childhood Hence, the destruction of a sports field that has exhisted for many years driven by financial greed would be appauling
